

A fighter for this community...

Bríd Smith is no ordinary TD. Unlike other politicians she is a visible and grassroots representative for this community.

In her time as a TD she has:

- ✓ Fought to reclaim the Iveagh Markets
- ✓ Challenged the problem of air pollution in our community
- ✓ Campaigned for the Drimnagh Primary Care Centre
- ✓ Secured community gains from the Ballyfermot De La Salle site
- ✓ Supported local parents campaigning for ASD assessment and facilities
- ✓ Campaigned for a new Gaelscoil for the area
- ✓ Fought to protect our local bus services and green spaces

Bríd Smith - A voice for you

Standing by workers

Bríd was the first female shop steward in Dublin Bus and has stood by nurses, teachers, transport workers and many others when standing for their rights.

Protecting our pensioners

Bríd helped found Pensioners for Equality which has vigorously opposed pension cuts.

Defending the environment

Bríd proposed the trail blazing motion to keep fossil fuels in the ground and make Ireland a world leader in tackling climate change.

A fighter for housing

Bríd has introduced bills to make housing a human right, to declare a national housing emergency and to introduce rent controls.

A leader in REPEAL

Bríd was a leading figure in the Repeal movement and has challenged the government on their role in the cervical check scandal.

A thorn in their side

Bríd is a voice for people power. She was jailed for 2 weeks for fighting the bin tax, was a leading figure in the movement against property tax and co sponsored the 1st Right2Water conference which eventually beat the water charges.
